Have you ever had a change of heart about what you believe about someone?

What about what you believe about God? In this message, you will discover how to learn to believe rightly both about God and the people in our lives.

In the month of December consider how we as followers of Jesus can let our light shine in the community. We have a food bank that can be filled for the families in need during this season. We also are having a toy drive for the families who are unable to give their children gifts for Christmas.

Also, random acts of kindness help people in the community to know that God exists and inspires His people to help others. If you know of a family who needs help please contact our Deacon of benevolence - Will Neel at (909)305-0124.

Next Sunday we will be celebrating Christmas together. We want to extend an invitation to hear songs and listen to the message of how God so loved mankind that He sent His Son to live among us. Service times will be a 11:00 AM & 2:00 PM

Discussion Questions

When is the last time you have had a change of heart about someone or something? What is hard to do? When is the last time you resisted a change of heart with someone asking you to think about change?

Read Luke Luke 10:25

- 1.) As an expert in the law, what were the reasons it was hard for him to have a change of heart? What do you think God wants you to do to be on His team?
- 2.) Read Luke 10:26-28 What keeps us from truly practicing these commands?
- 3.) Luke 10:29 What are ways we justify ourselves like the expert in the law did.
- 4.) Think about a time in your life where you put people in categories. Did you like being put in one of those by someone else? How can we eliminate putting others in categories?
- 5.) Read the story Luke 10:30-37 What was the reason the Good Samaritan took ‘pity’ on the man who was robbed? How can we go and do likewise?

Moving Forward

Loving your neighbor means meeting his or her needs with all the joy, speed and power that you would your own.

Changing your Mind

Luke 10:33 “But a Samaritan, (AL) as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. Go and See!
