Good at Looking

Do you really want to be like everybody else? Everybody else takes their cues from everybody else. Being like everybody else just makes you average, worried, in debt, bored, and dissatisfied with what you have. If you knew that living like everybody else on the outside would leave you feeling like this on the inside, you would have done what you suspected was right in your heart instead of doing what was right in your own eyes.

Also, just a reminder that there are some great discussion questions on the next page designed for you, your family and your small group as a follow-up to this week's message.

Did you miss last week's message? We got you covered. Just subscribe to our podcast, Lighthouse Church of Christ, and you can listen to any message from a past sermon series.

Serve

The Pomona Cold Winter Shelter has the following opportunities to serve until March 15: The shelter offers two shifts every night. The first shift is from 5pm-7pm in which volunteers can help prepare/serve the food, clean up, and pass out clothing. The second shift is 7pm-8:30pm and volunteers can help clean up, pack lunch meals for the next day, lead bible discussions, and monitor the residents. Discussion Questions

1. When you were a child, who did you want to grow up to be like? What did you admire about that person? Looking back, how realistic was your expectation of that person?
2. What are some things you do to make sure people only see your life's highlight reel? How does that influence whether you're living in a "kingdom of conscience" or a "kingdom of covet"?
3. Read Joshua 23:12-13. What are some of the cultural "snares" and "traps" we face today? How do they separate us from what God wants from us?
4. How has the cycle of disobedience, disaster, and deliverance played out in your relationship with God?
5. Where do you see worry, dysfunction, or fear in your life? How is it connected to a desire to be like everybody else?
6. Read Galatians 1:10. Think about one area of your life in which you need to stop trying to be like everyone else. What is one thing you can do to yield that area to God?

Moving Forward

When it comes to who you want to be like, God wants you to look up at him, not at the people around you. Have you yielded your heart to the invisible king? For the next seven days, pray the following verse out loud. It's written by Israel's future king, who realized that even kings need a King.

Changing Your Mind

Direct me in the path of your commands, for there I find delight. Turn my heart toward your statutes and not toward selfish gain. Turn my eyes away from worthless things; preserve my life according to your word. Psalms 119:35-37
