Nobody's That Stupid

Chances are your greatest regret can be traced back to a decision where your body wanted something that your heart knew was wrong. An appetite was raging. You saw something or someone you wanted . . . even though he, she, or it wasn't healthy for you. But you gave in to your body anyway. You yielded to the little kings that want to replace the Creator King who calls you to live from the inside out. What do you do when your body wants what your heart knows is wrong?

Also, don't forget about the discussion questions on the back of this newsletter as a follow up to this weeks message!

Did you miss last week's message? We got you covered. Just subscribe to our podcast, Lighthouse Church of Christ, and you can listen to any message from a past sermon series.

Women

Join women from all over the San Gabriel Valley and Inland Empire for coffee and an inspiring talk with Robin Weidner, world renown author of Secure in Heart and Eve's Song on March 29 from 3pm-5pm. The cost is only $5, so don't miss out on this great opportunity!

Discussion Questions

1. Why do you think our culture glorifies doing what is right in our own eyes when it comes to sexual conduct? What are some of the costs of that kind of view of sex?
2. During the message, Peter said, "There's nothing like sexual sin to derail you." Respond to that statement. Do you agree? Why or why not?
3. Read Judges 16:4-21. How believable is it to you that Samson would make the same mistake with Delilah again and again? What unhealthy patterns do you see in your own relationships?
4. Why is it hard for you to believe that God has a special plan for your life, but that you have to yield to him in order for him to do what he wants in and through you?
5. What is one step you can take to yield your sexual conduct to God and begin to live from the inside out instead of the outside in? How can this group help you in taking that step?

Moving Forward

Have you yielded your sexual conduct to God? Have you asked him to teach you to honor him with your body? If you do, when you ask the question, "What do I do when my body wants what my heart knows is wrong?" you'll be able to hear that small voice, the one that doesn't just say no, but "I love you and I have something better for you."

Changing Your Mind

Don't you realize that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who lives in you and was given to you by God? You do not belong to yourself, for God bought you with a high price. So you must honor God with your body. 1 Corinthians 6:19
