Musical Chairs

Solomon, the third king of Israel, wrote more about wisdom than any other biblical writer. He was considered by some to be the wisest man who ever lived. In his writing, he laid out three kinds of people who lack wisdom: the simple, the fools and the mockers. Eventually, people in each of these categories will need wisdom . . . but they may not find it.

Special Update

Thank you so much to those who have already been so generous and have given to our Special Missions campaign. On May 4, 2014 the Lighthouse Church collectively gave $138,000! We also know that not everyone had the opportunity to give, so we will be collecting Special Missions through out the Summer as we are trying to reach our goal of $190,000. We believe that we can reach this goal together and we look forward to how God will use your generosity.

Discussion Questions

1. If you could go back in time ten years and tell your younger self one thing, what would it be?
2. In what ways have you seen simple or foolish behavior in people around you? How did those people's choices affect your life or influence your choices?
3. What do you think is the relationship between knowledge and wisdom? How are they similar? How are they different?
4. Read Proverbs 1:20-33. Does this passage bother you or offend you in any way? If so, how?
5. Talk about a time when you traded what you wanted most for what you wanted in the moment. What did you learn from that experience?
6. What is an area of your life where you tend to behave like a simple person, a fool, or a mocker? What is one thing you can do this week to change your behavior in that area?

Moving Forward

The path of wisdom offers a way to live in safety, peace, and without fear of harm. But to leverage all that wisdom offers, you have to ask it: In light of my past experience, current circumstances, and future hopes and dream, what is the wise thing for me to do?

Changing Your Mind

For the waywardness of the simple will kill them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them; but whoever listens to me will live in safety and be at ease, without fear of harm."

Proverbs 1:32-33
