Time Over Time

Scripture says God has determined the number of your days. You can make more money and you can make more friends, but you can't make more time. You can count your money and your friends, but you can't count your time. In light of that truth, knowing what to do with your time matters. It's vital that you use your time wisely.

VBS 2014

Summer is just about here and so is our annual VBS program. Here's all the information you need:

Special Update

Thank you so much to those who have already been so generous and have given to our Special Missions campaign. On May 4, 2014 the Lighthouse Church collectively gave $138,000! We also know that not everyone had the opportunity to give, so we will be collecting Special Missions through out the Summer as we are trying to reach our goal of $190,000. We believe that we can reach this goal together and we look forward to how God will use your generosity.

Discussion Questions

1. Talk about one example from your life where you've seen small investments of time over time pay off.
2. Do you think there is such a thing as a "harmless distraction"? Why or why not?
3. Read Ephesians 5:15-17. What are some ways that culture lures people towards neglecting the incremental deposits in the things that matter most in life?
4. Is there a person in your life you wish had given more time to your relationship? If so, how do you think there life or your life might be different if you had spent more time together?
5. What is one thing in your life you need to say no to for now? What obstacles stand in the way of you saying no? What can you do to begin to remove those obstacles?
6. Where do you need to begin making consistent deposits of time? What is one thing you can do this week to begin making those deposits? How can this group support you?

Moving Forward

Look ahead to your desired future. In light of your past experience, current circumstances, and future hopes and dreams, where do you need to begin making consistent deposits of time? Reallocating your time can set you up for healthy relationships with the most important people in your life, and create a future without regret.

Changing Your Mind

You have decided the length of our lives. You know how many months we will live, and we are not given a minute longer.
