Special Missions Continue to grow

Hold My Hand

You always have something working against you when making personal decisions: You. Personal decisions are emotional, yet emotionally charged environments aren't ideal for decision-making. Your emotions make the obvious less obvious. Consequently, it's next to impossible to hear the voice of wisdom when emotions are raging.

Special Update

Thank you so much to those who have already been so generous and have given to our Special Missions campaign. Since May 4, 2014 the Lighthouse Church has collectively given $152,000! We also know that you may have not had the opportunity to give yet, so we will be collecting Special Missions through out the Summer as we are trying to reach our goal of $190,000. We believe that we can reach this goal together and we look forward to how God will use your generosity.

Discussion Questions

1. Do you tend to be decisive to indecisive? How has that served you throughout your life? How has it let you down?
2. Talk about a time when you witnessed someone make a decision you knew was unwise. What prevented you from offering that person your wisdom?
3. Read Proverbs 13:10. In what ways has pride, yours or others', created strife in your life?
4. Talk about a decision you've made, large or small, about which you'd like to go back in time and take a do-over. How do you think your life would be different now if you'd sought wise counsel before making that decision?
5. To whom do you look for wisdom? What qualities do those people possess that cause you to trust their advice?
6. What is one area of your life where you need to pause and seek wise counsel before making a decision? Whose advice should you seek?

Moving Forward

Wise people seek counsel. That's why they're wise. Wise people know they don't know all they need to know. So, they find people who know. Wisdom isn't knowing everything. It's knowing what you don't know and seeking wise counsel.

Changing Your Mind

Get all the advice and instruction you can, so you will be wise the rest of your life. Proverbs 19:20

Spiritual Fitness Test

Please pick up a Spiritual Fitness Test today if you haven't already and fill it out this week. Afterwards, set some time up with your Small Group Leader to go through it together.
