But You Promised

Remember the days of pinky swearing and crossing your heart? When we're young, we believe promises are for keeps. As we get older, our disillusion tells us promises are made to be broken. Those broken promises can weaken our faith in everything around us, including God. Today we are talking about the role of promises in maintaining a stable faith in God.

Single and Parenting

- Starts Saturday, July 19
- Saturdays 9:30-11:30am
- Kingdom Kids Building

Divorce Care

- Starts Thursday, July 17
- Thursdays 6:30-9:00pm

Special Update

Thank you so much to those who have already been so generous and have given to our Special Missions campaign. Since May 4, 2014 the Lighthouse Church has collectively given $152,000! We also know that you may have not had the opportunity to give yet, so we will be collecting Special Missions through out the Summer as we are trying to reach our goal of $190,000. We believe that we can reach this goal together and we look forward to how God will use your generosity.

Discussion Questions

1. What's is a big promise someone has made to you? Did that person keep the promise? What happened?
2. Is your tendency to trust promises or do you react with skepticism? Why?
3. How do you think the promises that people have broken in your life have affected your ability to trust God's promises?
4. Read Matthew 11:2. Why do you think John the Baptist asked this question? Can you relate to John in your life when things don't work out the way you presumed they would? What does that tell you about your faith?
5. In his message, Peter stated that, "A fragile faith is attached to our presumptions, but a stable faith is attached to God's promises." In what way have you made presumptions of God and people? How has that affected your faith in God?
6. What unresolved broken promises are in your past? What areas of your life are difficult to surrender to God? The answer to these questions can unlock faith in your future.

Moving Forward

Our first Promise principle is to draw near to God and He will draw near to you (James 4:8 and Hebrews 10:22). Make a decision this week to move in his direction.

Changing Your Mind

Come near to God and he will come near to you. James 4:8

Spiritual Fitness Test

Please fill out a Spiritual Fitness Test if you haven't already. Once you complete it, set some time up with your Small Group Leader to go through it together.
