Special Missions Continue to grow

God IS Love

Remember the days of pinky swearing and crossing your heart? When we're young, we believe promises are for keeps. As we get older, our disillusion tells us promises are made to be broken. Those broken promises can weaken our faith in everything around us, including God. Today we are talking about the role of promises in maintaining a stable faith in God.

Special Update

Thank you so much to those who have already been so generous and have given to our Special Missions campaign. Since May 4, 2014 the Lighthouse Church has collectively given $152,000! We also know that you may have not had the opportunity to give yet, so we will be collecting Special Missions through out the Summer as we are trying to reach our goal of $190,000. We believe that we can reach this goal together and we look forward to how God will use your generosity.

Discussion Questions

1. When the message opened with the point, "God has promised His unconditional love." What did you think? Have you heard that before?
2. Do you feel this promise personally or do you feel that it is just a general message to everyone? Explain.
3. Before the message, what would have been the answer to the question, "Why does God love you?" Have you changed your answer since then?
4. Read 1 John 4:7-9. What do you see about God's nature in these verses? When it comes to God, is love a verb or a noun? Why?
5. Read Jeremiah 31:3. When you truly encounter God, do you know what to expect? Can you do anything more to make God love you more? Answer this question honestly: Do you believe God loves you?
6. Why is God's love not more evident in our daily lives (we're up and down)? Are we focused on the original love of God or have we been affected by imitations? Read Hebrews 1:3 and 1 John 4:10. God gave us Himself!

Moving Forward

Our second Promise Principle is, "God is love. This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through Him." Moving forward this week, make a decision to live through Jesus.
