Cage of Responsibility

The first week of this brand new series focuses on how our God-ordained passions can get buried beneath day-to-day responsibilities. Without even knowing it, we start practicing irresponsible responsibility. The Wild Goose Chase begins when we come to terms with our greatest responsibility: pursuing the passions God has put in our heart.

Did you miss last week's message? We got you covered. Just subscribe to our podcast, Lighthouse Church of Christ, and you can listen to any message from a past sermon series.

Serving Opportunities

Tis the season to be generous and that is why we have the following opportunities to get involved. There will be a table set up outside after service every Sunday if you would like more information:

Discussion Questions

1. When Peter talked about Adventure vs. Life In The Zoo, did you identify with the comparison? Share some examples of life in captivity.
2. Read Luke 9:59-60. What are some responsibilities that can become excuses for stepping out of the cage?
3. Read Nehemiah 1-2:5. What was the Single Cell Desire Nehemiah received by hearing the news about Jerusalem. Were there any excuses he could have used to pass the responsibility to someone else?
4. The King asked Nehemiah, "What do you want?" Do you have an answer to that question in your life right now? Are you willing to share it with the group?
5. How would it shape this new year if you went on a Goose Chase (Holy Spirit) for God's specific passion in your life?
6. How can this group help one another begin a daily practice of prayer and bible study? What are some things you can do to get you out of your comfort zone?
