Cage of Routine

At some point in our journey, most of us trade adventure for routine. While some routines can be good, we have to be careful. Sacred routines become empty rituals that keep us caged. Particularly if we think things are not going to change any time soon. It is in those remote 'deserts' of life that God is calling us out of the cage to experiment the 'Goose Chase'. It all can change with a bold prayer - 'God lead my life in the direction you have planned. Fill me with your Holy Spirit!'

Did you miss last week's message? We got you covered. Just subscribe to our podcast, Lighthouse Church of Christ, and you can listen to any message from a past sermon series.

Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever felt stuck in your position at work or at a stage in your life where it seems like you will be doing this for the rest of your life?
2. Read Exodus 3:1-6. When Moses was first called by God, did he have reason to doubt if God was able to use him? What did the last 40 years do to contribute to that doubt?
3. In verse one, the NLT version says: 'One day' which implies that everything changes when God shows up. What keeps us from experiencing life changing adventure? How can we be more aware of the Holy Spirit in our lives?
4. In verse four, Moses begins the Wild Goose Chase. In the same way, Jesus calls us to follow him but has He called us just to save us? What else is He calling us to concerning the Holy Spirit?
5. Read verse 5-6. Was the place where Moses standing the promise land? What made that place 'Holy Ground?' How can we learn to recognize all the miracles around us and why don't we see them?
6. What are some spiritual routines we can practice on a daily basis? Can you share a few of the practical steps Peter mentioned on how to mix up routines? How can this group help you implement them?

Changing Your Mind

Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up. Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates. Deuteronomy 6:7-9
