Cage of Guilt

The Enemy's tactics haven't changed since the Garden of Eden. He tries to neutralize us spiritually by getting us to focus on what we've done wrong in the past. Satan uses guilt to turn us into reactionaries. Jesus came to recondition our spiritual reflexes and turn us into revolutionaries for His cause. As long as you are focused on what you've done wrong in the past, you won't have the energy left to dream kingdom dreams.

Did you miss last week's message? We got you covered. Just subscribe to our podcast, Lighthouse Church of Christ, and you can listen to any message from a past sermon series.

Discussion Questions

- Is there anyone in your life that makes you feel really good about yourself simply by comparing yourself to them?
- Read Luke 22:31-34 What can you see in Peter's character? How can you relate to him? Read Luke 22:54-62 What conditioned behavior was forming in Peter's life after this event? Can you identify any similar conditions in your reaction to places and events?
- When Jesus looked at Peter, what was He trying to communicate to him that relates to verse 32? What is God trying to tell us in the midst of our failures? How do we lock ourselves in cages of guilt?
- Read Luke 21:15-17. Why did Jesus ask Peter three times if he loved Him? What was Jesus doing with his conditioned behaviors? How does this example relate to what God is doing in our lives right now?
- Discuss these equations: Sin-Grace=Guilt or Sin+Grace=Gratitude. Which equation do you see in your daily life?
- Read 1 John 1:8. When looking at our cages of guilt, what sin do you need to confess to be set free? Take time to split up men and women to have a time of confession in prayer. How can we make a regular practice of confession?

Moving Forward

The grace of God is the difference between drowning in guilt and swimming in gratitude.

Changing Your Mind

"But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8
