A Real Relationship

Have you ever felt like you're missing something? Like you're getting by, but your life lacks something crucial, something extraordinary? Somehow, we in the American church have managed to neglect the life-changing power of the Holy Spirit. And the sad thing is that many people haven't even noticed. However its time for the church of Jesus Christ to reverse the trend of neglect. Join as we pursue the Spirit-filled life of effectiveness God desires and we desire.

Discussion Questions

1. As our desire for the Spirit grows, there comes an important point where we must examine our motives for desiring Him. It's so important because if we pursue the Spirit out of love for God and people, then the power of God will be shown, but if we try to use the Spirit for our own purposes, we're only demonstrating our pride. Write down a few possible motivations for desiring the Holy Spirit—both good and bad.
2. Read Acts 8:9-24. Think about Simon's response in v18-19. What do you think his motivation was for desiring the Spirit?
3. Describe the difference between someone who pursues the Holy Spirit for their own sake and someone who does so out of love for other people. If we're going to be truly open for the Spirit to work in our lives, we must first let go of the things that are keeping us from close fellowship with Him.
4. Now that we have covered our motives, let's focus on our relationship with God. Read Galatians 4:1-7. Think about this imagery. What's the difference between a child and slave?
5. The term Abba that Paul uses in our modern equivalent would be the word Daddy. Why is that so significant to you? How should it affect your relationship with God to know that He sent the Holy Spirit into your heart to cry out Abba?
6. What are some things that are distracting you from that kind of relationship with God? Are you guilty of taking the Spirit for granted? If so, how can you reverse that trend in your life?

Change Your Mind

Remember that it is the Holy Spirit who cries out Abba! Father! in your heart. Pray that you would be empowered by the Holy Spirit to approach God and know Him as you Daddy.
