Connect

In an age where most people associate their connection to the closest wifi signal, our need for connection with others has never been greater. From the moment we wake up we are filtering through emails, checking notifications, finishing assignments, rushing to class, meeting deadlines, dropping off the kids, picking up the kids, cooking dinner and on and on it goes. By the time we sit down and take it all in, we are so worn out that our capacity and willingness to connect is next to none. The good news, however, is that all around us connections are waiting to be made.

Did you miss last week's message? Don't worry, we got you covered. Just subscribe to our podcast on iTunes, Lighthouse Church of Christ, and you can listen to any message from a past sermon series.

Love & Respect

What is Love and Respect? Well we believe that love is what motivates a woman the most while respect most powerfully motivates a man. So over the next four weeks, starting on June 23, the MarriedLife ministry will be going through an amazing series based on the book Love & Respect. If you're married, you won't want to miss it!

Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever done the exercise called the Trust Fall? It's when one person has their back turned to their partner and they proceed to fall backwards while their partner is there to catch them. Why do you think that exercise is so challenging?
2. Now, why do you think it is so difficult to trust God with everything in your life?
3. The truth is that really trusting God requires us to be willing to do whatever God asks of us in His Word, even if we don't understand it. What are some areas that make trusting God difficult for you (i.e. finances, forgiveness, loving enemies)?
4. Have you seen good come from trusting God that seemed bad at the time? If so, in what ways?
5. The level of trust we have in our connection with God often determines the connection we have with one another. Therefore, how connected would you say you are in the vineyard, "the church"?
6. What works has Jesus Christ given you to do to build up the church? Are you faithfully doing them? As your trust in God grows, you'll begin to fulfill the things He has called you to do!

Special Missions Update

We not only reached our goal of $154,000, but we blew it out! In fact, the overall amount collected for Missions totaled $161,000! It was amazing to see what God was able to do through the generosity of so many people. Just a friendly reminder for those who gave a pledge, please do your best to follow through on those pledges since the total includes them as well. Thank you so much!
