JESUS IS _____.

How would you fill in the blank of this statement? Go ahead and write something in. Your answer may be the thing that defines your understanding of who God is and your relationship with Him and others. In this series, we will go back to the source so that the scriptures can show us exactly who Jesus is _____. Today we will see how our worth is more than we realize and how God's grace is scandalous.

If you are married, our annual marriage retreat with the IE is coming up on November 14-15! The cost is $40 per couple and you can register online now at www.ieministry.com!

Discussion Questions

1. In the three parables Jesus tells in Luke 15, what surprises you about God's value system? Is 99 > than 1? Is 10 > than 1?
2. In the prodigal son story, why would the father disregard cultural expectation and run toward a son who had left him as he did?
3. Do you find this story to be scandalous, as Jesus' audience did, because someone is rewarded for their bad behavior? Is this comforting and reassuring? Or is does this bother you? What does your answer reveal about your view of God?
4. How did Jesus' three parables answer the question: Why does Jesus hang out with bad people?
5. In Peter's message, he talked about the one reason for dancing. Are you still dancing or are you trying to build a case for dancing? Are you trying to put your ducks in a row before you start dancing?
6. Read Ephesians 2:8-9. What do you need to do this week in order for God to love you more? How are you going to treat other people in view of God's feeling for you? Is there a difference? Who is challenging to love? How can this group help you?

Changing your Mind

So he got up and went to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.
