How would you fill in the blank of this statement? Go ahead and write something in. Your answer may be the thing that defines your understanding of who God is and your relationship with Him and others. In this series, we will go back to the source so that the scriptures can show us exactly who Jesus is _____. Today we will discuss the idea of acceptance. It's something we all want and go to great lengths to obtain. What if Jesus accepts us and loves us in advance? We would say Jesus is our Friend.

If you are married, our annual marriage retreat with the IE is coming up on November 14-15! The cost is $40 per couple and you can register online now at www.ieministry.com!

Discussion Questions

1. In Peter’s message he shared about his families’ preparation when an invited guest comes over for dinner. Can you relate to exaggerated effort they go through for guests? Share an example of how we go to a lot of trouble to be accepted?
2. Read Luke 19:1-10. Who do you think is more surprised to hear Jesus invite himself over to Zacchaeus’ house for dinner: Zacchaeus or the crowd? Why?
3. What do you think must have affected Zacchaeus more at dinner: Whatever Jesus’ topic of discussion was or simply the love Jesus showed for him? Why?
4. What ultimately changed Zacchaeus’ life? What makes us acceptable and right before God?
5. What trees have you climbed in your life in an attempt to get God’s attention or impress Him?
6. Read Romans 5:6-8. What can you do this week to turn more of your attention to Jesus? How can this group help?

Changing your Mind

You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
