Jesus Is The Point.

How would you fill in the blank of this statement? Go ahead and write something in. Your answer may be the thing that defines your understanding of who God is and your relationship with Him and others. In this series, we will go back to the source so that the scriptures can show us exactly who Jesus is _____.

If you are married, our annual marriage retreat with the IE is coming up on November 14-15! The cost is $40 per couple and you can register online now at www.ieministry.com!

Discussion Questions

1. Can you remember a time in your life when you shopped for days to find that one thing for yourself or someone you loved? What was it and why was it so important to find?
2. Read Luke 18:35-43. The people tried to silence the blind man as he called out for Jesus. Describe a situation in your life right now where you need Jesus’ help. Who and what is keeping you from reaching Jesus? What was the key to the blind man’s healing?
3. Read 5:12-13. What are some things that keep you isolated from people and Jesus? How does guilt quarantine us in our relationships? In verse thirteen Jesus say, ‘Be clean.’ Do you really believe Jesus can immediately cleanse us from our guilt? What make it hard to accept God’s forgiveness?
4. Read Matthew 13:44. What are some things you treasure in your life right now that are material? Why are they so important to you? How can we treasure Jesus more than anything else? What are some reasons for doing so?
5. What can we do for each other in this group to make Jesus our focal point and our reward?

Changing your Mind

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field.”

Matthew 13:44
