Lights Out

February is the month where love is heavily marketed. "Give her something special this Valentines Day." In other words, buying her cards, flowers, jewelry or chocolate will do the trick. In a society with so many failed relationships, we need to ask the question...do these things really do the trick? Is this really love? We are going to explore God's love for each one of us and how He extends a covenant relationship to the world. Perhaps if we listen with our hearts, our Creator can help us truly understand what it means to say I love you.

Discussion Questions

1. Do you think the church is being affected by our society and its view of divorce? Can you think of any examples?
2. Read Malachi 2:15-16 [Voice]. Why do you think God feels so strongly about divorce? What is his ultimate purpose in commanding us to be true in our marriages? Why does our culture seem to be going in the opposite direction?
3. Read Matthew 19:2-10. What are the Pharisees trying to get Jesus to do? How does Jesus simplify the answer to this question? Why did Moses make an exception to God's original plan? What is Jesus' only exception for divorce? Do you see a connection when it comes to divorce during the time of Jesus and our culture today?
4. During the lesson, what did you think of Hector Torres' sharing about his parents divorce? Do you think being a part of the church alone will save you from getting divorced? Why is it so important to have teaching on divorce?
5. Read 1 Corinthians 7:13,15. According to the Apostle Paul, what is another exception to getting a divorce? Can you remember any key points from the letter the elders of the Los Angeles Church wrote? Have you read it?
6. What are some practical ways we can keep growing while making sure God is first in our marriages? Do you think our world needs some good examples of marriage? How can this group help each other build strong marriages and families?
