RE.FILLED

We all want a life filled with God's favor yet we all have schedules and calendars that are so full it can feel like there is no room for anything else. The reality is that even though our lives may feel full, often times our lives are still empty. Today we are going to learn about a woman who faced an agonizing dilemma. She had little resources, a seemingly impossible situation and no good solution. But she did the only thing she could think to do and that was to ask God for help and follow godly counsel, which ultimately led to an incredible blessing.

SPECIAL MISSIONS

We believe that God blesses you so that you can be a blessing. This is why on May 1 we're celebrating our Special Missions which is when we give generously to churches all over Latin America as well as supporting some needs in our church. We are praying and asking that you would generously give 11 Times what you tithe every week. Please be praying for God to let us sow generously and to reap generously for His glory. You can also sign-up to give online at [lighthouse.ccbchurch.com].

Discussion Questions

Ice Breaker Start your group discussion with a quick recap of 2 Kings 4:1-7. What are some items in your home you can think of that could provide help in financial crisis?

1. Imagine that you are in the widow's situation right now (kids and all). What might you do? Who would you turn to? What if she were one of your family members or neighbors? What advice and help would you give?
2. Read 2 Kings 4:2-3. Why did Elisha ask the widow about what she had? Her first response was nothing. What does that say about our thinking when we are in crisis mode? What if she would have never asked anyone for help? How would the story have played out? What happens when we don't ask God and Godly people for advice?
3. When did the widow demonstrate faith? In what way(s) does the widow actively participate in resolving her situation and how does it relate to you and the situations you face?
4. What role can we play in the lives of people around us who are going through a crisis?
5. What vessels are you daily asking God to fill and RE.FILL? Which areas might you need to admit you need help? Share with the group some examples of vessels that you have (talents, possessions, career, relationships, etc.).
6. What can we do as a group in the coming weeks to provide for the needs of the churches in Mexico and Central America?

Change Your Mind

Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. 1 Timothy 6:17
