Give & Take

We all want a life overflowing and filled with God's favor yet our lives are full of a lot of things. We all have schedules and calendars that are so full it can feel like there is no room for anything else and even though our lives can feel full, often times our lives are still empty. In this week's sermon, Mike explains that we feel the most full when we find ourselves giving what God has called us to give because what if the secret to a fulfilled life has less to do with what we have and more to do with what we're willing to give away?

SPECIAL MISSIONS

We believe that God blesses you so that you can be a blessing. This is why on May 1 we are giving and celebrating our Special Missions which is when we give generously to churches all over Latin America as well as supporting the needs here in our church. We are asking that you would give Eleven Times what you tithe every week. Please be praying for God to let us sow generously and reap generously for His glory [Give Missions online at lighthouse.ccbchurch.com with a user name and password].

Discussion Questions

Ice Breaker Start your group discussion by asking some give and take questions: What's the worst gift you have ever been given? Would you rather give a high-five to every person you see or receive a hug from every stranger you meet? Would you rather give someone a ride somewhere every time you drive or take a cab every time you needed to go somewhere?

1. Who is the best giver you know? Who is the biggest taker you know? On most days, are you a giver or a taker?
2. Read Proverbs 11:24 MSG. When you read that verse, who or what do you think of?
3. In the message, Mike stated that the more I take, the emptier I feel. Have you ever felt that way? He also stated that the more I give, the fuller I get. When you give of your time or money, what do you get out of it?
4. The statement was made that when you take where God has called you to give, you'll always come up empty. What do you believe God calls us to give, and how can you grow in your ability to give it? However, we'll also come up empty when we give what God has called us to take. What is it that God calls us to take, and when have you felt called to take it?
5. Read Ephesians 2:8. Paul reminds us that God is a giver, not a matcher or taker. Is there a point in your life that you reflect on and thank God that He did not "match" what you would have been willing to give Him at that time? Share with group.

Change Your Mind

Not one of all the Lord's good promises to Israel failed; every one was fulfilled. Joshua 21:45
