Unemployed Members

Research tells us that the average person thinks about 50,000 thoughts every day. Each thought moves us either toward our God-given potential or away from it. Unfortunately, we live in a society bent on highlighting what is wrong with just about everything. As a result, we have grown accustomed to viewing the world and ourselves through a lens of negativity. In Philippians 4:8, the apostle Paul challenges us to seek out and dwell on the positives in our lives. When used as a filter, Philippians 4:8 is the true secret to vibrant health, satisfying relationships, and lasting fulfillment!

Discussion Questions

4:8 Questions That Make 4:8 Thinking Easy

The challenge this week is to put these questions in a place where you can see them during the week. Also make it a point to answer them with your family, friends and coworkers.

1. What do I know to be true about God?
2. What excites me about my faith?
3. Aren't I blessed to have such strong faith in the Lord?
4. Who are the people that pray for me consistently and how does that make me feel?
5. What's awesome about my life right now and how could I show my appreciation?
6. What's great about my country?
7. What is the most amazing thing about my life so far?
