Discussion Title: Are You in Touch? Category: Lifestyle
טוט	Opening:		Pick 6 individuals to share. 5
	Opening.		minutes total.
	Have everyone in the group share one good quality and one bad quality about themselves.
	D
Q.	Do you think you have an accurate assessment of yourself? (In touch)
Q.	Is it possible you have an inaccurate assessment of you? (Out of touch)
	Yes. Distorted, too optimistic, too pessimistic, etc.	acity rest bistoriced, too optimistic, too pessimistic, etc.
Q.	Has another person ever had an inaccurate assessment of you? When?
	 We can have a distorted view of ourselves, and other people warped assessment of us as well.
_
Q.	What is the true assessment of who you are?
	What God thinks – His view is the correct view; it is unbiased.	d and it counts.
	Do you think most people have an accurate view of themselves?
Q.	bo you think most people have an accurate view of themselves:
	This study is entitled "Are You in Touch?" We will look at two people. One was very in touch, and one was out of touch.	·
Lesson:
	Luke 7:26 FO (Stamu of the Sinful Manney) Decem		Pick 1-2 individuals to answer each question (Q).
	Luke 7:36-50 (Story of the Sinful Women) Recap		Koon trook of time during the
Q.	What kind of reputation did the women have?		Keep track of time during the discussion. Keep the
ζ.	Public reputation as a sinner! Perhaps prostitute, adulteress	town drunk, gossin.	discussion focused and on point. Avoid going off on a busybody, etc.	, се т. а. а , десе.р)	tangent topic.
	, ,		Additional notes:
Q.	What did she risk by coming to Jesus?
	 Her pride, her self-worth, and every shred of dignity she had 	l left
_	11. 19.14.5
Q.	How did this woman demonstrate humility?	معادرها
	Just coming to the Pharisee's house, overcoming her fears a Chains and wasning in front of all those people.	na doubts
	 Crying and weeping in front of all those people Washing Jesus' feet with her hair, kissing his feet, anointing 	his fact with parfuma
	washing Jesus Teet with their fiall, kissing his feet, anothting	ilis leet with perfume
Q.	Why did she humble herself?
	 She had an accurate view of who she was and of who Jesus 	was!
	She was in touch with where she stood in relationship to Go	d.
Q.	What was Simon the Pharisee's attitude?
	 Critical of the woman, critical of Jesus.
	 Sarcastic, negative, cynical, judgmental and above all, pridef 	ful

		Additional notes:
Q.	How did Simon demonstrate pride?
	 He didn't do anything for Jesus, was not focused on the needs of others
	 He was totally self-focused; he had a critical, unloving attitude
	 He should have been excited about the woman's repentance, but wasn't
	 He was blind to what was really going on – pride blinds
Q.	Were the woman's sins worse than Simon's?
	 No, just more visible, but Simon thought that hers were much worse.
Q.	How are we like Simon in our attitudes?
	Prideful, self-focused
	 Out of touch with who we really are, with how we compare with Jesus
	 Act like everything is fine, we're doing great
	 Criticize others who are humble and getting their lives right with God
	Threatened by righteous or humble people
Q.	How would we act if we were in touch with our sin?
	 Be humble about what kind of sinners we really are
	Be merciful, loving, forgiving of other people	-
	 Be broken-hearted about how our sins have hurt God and hurt others
	Be concerned about what God thinks, not about what others people think
Q.	So how do we get in touch?
	 Stop comparing yourself with people and compare yourself with Jesus
	 Get some spiritual people in your life who will tell you the truth
	 Read the Bible, study God's word to see how God views your character
	Conclusion:
	Start making the effort to get in touch.
	Be encouraged by the faith and courage of the sinful woman.
	be encouraged by the fatth and courage of the simul woman.		