Discussion Title: Why forgive? Category: Relationships				S
	Opening:			Pick 2 individual to share.
Q.	Have you ever been stoppe	ed by a policeman, but not been ticketed?		5 minutes total.
Q.	How did you feel?
Loca	Lesson:
Q.	Cite other examples in which you should have been in trouble, but got off. Pick :
ζ.	It feels good to esca	-	it on.	answer each question (Q).
		rriages and in our relationship is to make of	thers feel this way – in	Keep track of time during other words to forgive them.		aners reer and way in	the discussion. Keep the Ü			discussion focused and on point. Avoid going off on
Q.	What are some obstacles to forgiving others?			a tangent topic.
	Desire for revengeDesire for satisfaction (apology)			Additional notes:
	Reluctance to face the issue
Q.	trilly do the field to forgive.
	Discuss
	Lat's see what the Dible has to say about this tonics
	Let's see what the Bible has to say about this topic: Matthew 6:14-15 To receive God's forgiveness
	Colossians 3:13	To imitate the LORD
	Ephesians 4:32	Because it is a command
	Hebrews 12:14-15	To avoid bitterness
Q.	 What is typically required of a person in order for us to forgive them? An apology, evidence of repentance Luke 23:34 Jesus on the cross
Q.	What did Jesus require? Nothing
٠.	what did Jesus require: Nothing
	Luke 17:3-4	If a person repents, you must forgive the	m.
	Luke 17:5	Disciples thought it would take more fait	h.
	Luke 17:6	Jesus said (in effect) to use the faith you	have
	We cannot(?) forgive all by ourselves! It is an issue of your heart – no one else's.
Q.	 How do you feel when you really forgive someone? Free, like a burden has been lifted Released. Relieved
	 Healed and forgiven Clear conscience
	Free from bitterness
	• Tree nom bitternes	J			